

BurrellesLuce Express

75 East Northfield Road/ Livingston, NJ 07039 / 973-992-6600

SOURCE: The Sacramento (CA) Bee

AUDIENCE: 588,651 [provided by Nielsen//NetRatings]

DATE: 03-26-2007

HEADLINE: On the move: Fremont-Rideout Health Group promotes Hamilton as its CEO

Source Website

Published 12:00 am PDT Monday, March 26, 2007

Story appeared in BUSINESS section, Page D2

Fremont-Rideout Health Group of Yuba City has appointed Theresa Hamilton chief executive officer. She is the health care system's first female CEO. Previously, she served as vice president of physician development and joint ventures and vice president of clinical and support services. Under her leadership, the imaging department at Fremont Medical Center was renovated and expanded.

Bob Swanson has been named managing shareholder of Boutin Dentino Gibson Di Giusto Hodell Inc. He specializes in business and real estate litigation.

Dale Janssen has been named executive director of the Commission on Teacher Credentialing. He has served as interim executive director since August. He also served as director of the certification, assignment and waivers division.

McDonough Holland & Allen PC has hired Tad Egawa as an "of counsel" attorney and Kelley Lincoln as an associate with the real estate practice. Egawa's practice includes the negotiation and documentation of real estate purchases, sales and development, lease transactions and other real estate-based transactions. Lincoln previously worked at Ryan & Fong, focusing on commercial and residential real-estate transactions and litigation.

Rakhi Khatri has joined Sutter Medical Group as an internist. Dr. Khatri is practicing internal medicine in Sacramento. Previously, she was a primary care physician at St. Anthony Medical Center in Indiana.

Capitol Public Radio has named Jen Picard senior producer of its Insight Program. She joined the company in July as the program's assistant producer.

Downey Brand LLP has named the following partners: Wendy Bogdan, environmental law; Cassandra Ferrannini, labor and employment litigation; John Oehmke, corporate and real estate law; and Winnifred Ward, real estate law.

David Katz has been named territory manager at Pape Machinery's Sacramento office. He oversees compact construction line equipment sales for El Dorado and southern Sacramento counties.

Jean-Marc Leininger has been named branch manager of River City Bank's Davis branch. He has an extensive background in loan production, sales and management. Previously, he was an escrow assistant for First American Title.

Bridges to Leadership has hired Jim Savarese as an engagement partner. He will focus on coaching the sales team. He brings 35 years of experience. Previously, he was general manager for Duplex Products' West Coast division.

Greenberg Traurig LLP has hired Adam White as an associate lawyer. He practices commercial litigation with an emphasis on construction law, employment law and contract disputes.

About the writer:

* –mail notices of managerial and professional career moves to onthemove@sacbee.com. Photographs may also be e–mailed but will be used as space allows.

Copyright (c) The Sacramento Bee, (916) 321–1000

Highlights: Pape Machinery